On December 11, 2002, the Issuer adopted a plan to wind down and cease all operations related to its historical telecommunications business, which process it completed in December 2005. Upon consummation of the Transactions, the Issuer adopted the business plan of SafeStitch, which is now a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Issuer. The Issuer is now a developmental stage medical device company focused on the development of medical devices that manipulate tissues for obesity, gastroesophageal reflux disease (“GERD”), Barrett’s Esophagus, esophageal obstructions, upper gastrointestinal bleeding, hernia formation and other intraperitoneal abnormalities through endoscopic and minimally invasive surgery. To better reflect its new business, the Issuer presently plans to change its name to Swan Medical Devices, Inc.

Additionally, pursuant to a corporate action signed by holders of more than two-thirds of the issued and outstanding Shares, the structure of the Issuer’s board of directors (the “Board”) will change. Presently, the Board is divided into three distinct classes, and the terms of the directors in each such class expire in three consecutive years. At each annual meeting of stockholders, the successors to the class of directors whose terms then expire are elected to hold office for new three-year terms and until their successors have been elected and qualified. The Issuer plans to eliminate this staggered arrangement with the effect that all directors on the Board comprise a single class; therefore, all positions on the Board may be subject to an election in any given year. Also, one new seat will be added to the Board.

Effective on the Closing Date, Stephen Katz, Lawrence Schoenberg, Joshua J. Angel and Dr. Frost resigned as members of the Board, and the following persons were appointed by the remaining members of the Board to serve as directors until the next meeting of stockholders, or until their earlier removal, resignation or death: Dr. Kenneth Heithoff and Kevin Wayne as Class I directors; Steven D. Rubin as a Class II director; and Jeffrey G. Spragens and Dr. Charles Filipi as Class III directors.

Also in connection with the Transactions and pursuant to the stockholder action described above, the Issuer’s Restated Certificate of Incorporation will be amended to increase the aggregate number of shares of all classes of capital stock that the Issuer may issue from 35,000,000 to 250,000,000, which shall be composed of 225,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, and 25,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share.

The stockholder action referred to above will be effective 20 calendar days after the mailing of an information statement on Schedule 14C to the Issuer’s stockholders.
